

Dimensión V

Dimensión V is a sculpture of stainless that represents a fullerene, which is a molecule of Carbon in the form of a sphere. The sculpture has a diameter of 4 metres and is located at the National Institute for Nuclear Research (ININ) in Ocoyoacac, Mexico. Dimensión V is an emblematic symbol of ININ because it commemorates 40 years of research in nuclear energy in Mexico. With this piece, its designer, Yvonne Domenge, was the winner of 6th Latin American Industrial Design Mexinox Award in 1996.
