

Sports Stadium Sculpture

This sculpture depicts a series of sporting activities and stands in front of what is now the Football Stadium of Shanghai. The stadium was built in 1997 for the 8th National Games of China. It has since been used for the 2007 Special Olympics Summer Games, the 2008 Summer Olympics and was the host venue for Supercoppa Italiana. Final between Juventus and Lazio on 8 August 2015. With almost 57,000 seats it is one of the thirty largest football stadiums in the world, and is the third largest stadium in China after the Guangdong Olympic Stadium and the Beijing National Stadium. The sculpture was manufactured from 304 stainless steel.

Details

Location:	Shanghai Stadium (Shanghai, China)
Grade:	300 series
Surface finish:	Grind based on 2B surface
Fabrication process:	Stamping and welding
Photographer:	Chen Shang Chen
More information:	outokumpu.com