

Better to be sustainable

Stainless steel reinforcement

Where to use stainless steel?

- For sea walls and coastal defences
- In highway bridges and roadways
- In coastal structures
- In historic buildings where longevity is essential
- In underpasses
- Around magnetic equipment (such as imaging machines in hospitals)
- Wherever reinforced concrete can be subjected to corrosive environments

Learn more on stainlesssteelrebar.org

